Minutes from February were read. Dave and Dwight gave corrections: Dave called meeting to order, census discussion centered around boundaries of the city that were checked and deemed correct. Dwight's last name was spelled incorrectly. Corrections were made.

Dwight motioned to accept as corrected. Morgan and Tyler seconded and it was approved.

Treasurer's report for March was read.

Morgan motioned to accept and Dwight seconded, the report was approved.

Checks were signed to pay city bills.

Old Business

Speed Humps

Tyler Watson spoke to principal of Bowen about speed and traffic concerns on Claremoor. Principal sent out a letter to parents to address the concern. Resident hasn't noticed anymore issues, but weather has not permitted family to be outside to notice speeding concerns.

Stop Signs

Council member Dwight Grammar noted that he fixed the stop sign that was knocked over.

Stop sign on Brentmoor- residents told council member Tyler Watson there is an issue with it. He will take a look to see if anything needs to be repaired.

New Business

Election

Council discussed new criteria for 2020 City Council election.

Potholes

Gail noted that there is a pothole forming at the entrance. Dave will contact Hall Contracting to discuss replacing portion of the street to prevent potholes from forming.
