Absent:

Meeting called to order by Paul Muth at 6:55 pm

Minutes from August were approved. Paul motioned and Angela seconded.

The Treasurer's report for August was read and approved. Paul motioned and Kevin seconded.

- Checks were signed
- Barbara reported that a homeowner is getting a refund because they are approved for homestead exemption.

Old Business

Rumpke

- Kevin discussed the hydraulic fluid spilled onto Ashmoor and what Rumpke can do to amend. He will prepare a letter that Jamie will send to Rumpke and Paula McCraney. It is agreed that if the Fire Department bills the city that it will be forwarded to Rumpke. Paul will discuss the possible damage to the asphalt with a paving company. Kevin contacted the EPA already.

Entrance Signs

- Fast Signs is still working on the signs

LG&E

- Paul met with LG&E and they stated that they would send a contract out to sign. It has been two weeks and still has not received the contract.

Paving

- Paul attempted to call and have estimates from four different paving companies and only one came to give an estimate, waiting to receive. Discussed the need for more estimates before signing an agreement.

No New Business

Paul motioned to adjourn the meeting. Kevin seconded.

Meeting adjourned at 7:25 PM

Next meeting October 4th, 7pm in person at Northeast Library
